Dr. Harrison Hagan Schmitt: Exploring a Valley on the Moon
Apollo 17 Astronaut • 12th American to Step onto the Moon, December 11, 1972 • United States Senator from New Mexico, 1977-1983

President Dwight D. Eisenhower and John F. Kennedy set the United States on Earth's first journey to the Moon. The Apollo Program ignited a dream to lift the humanity through magnificent technical achievement and a record coverage. This statue honors the countless men and women of Apollo whose dedication, perseverance and patriotism brought our nation's greatest hopes and dreams to walk on our red planet and to put the first Americans on the Moon. Jimmy Pate

VALLEY ON THE MOON
While on the Moon, crew member Schmitt explored the lunar surface.
